1 Language as Primary Skill (must have to get the job)

2 Language as Auxiliary Skill (highly useful or required)

3 Language as Auxiliary Skill (useful with other skills)
According to NACE (National Association of Colleges and Employers), career readiness means that you have experience and skills in eight career competencies. Of the eight, SILC specializes in three.

1. Global/Intercultural Fluency
2. Oral/Written Communication
3. Critical Thinking/Problem Solving

Enroll in Our Courses

The School of International Letters and Cultures offers programs and courses that will improve your career readiness in these three competencies. Choose from:
