Romanian Lectureship at ASU

The Romanian Language Institute (RLI) was established by a governmental decision as a specialized body within the Ministry of National Education of Romania. Its mission is to promote the Romanian language, culture and civilization abroad. Information related to teaching Romanian as a foreign language goes back to the beginning of the 18th century. This represents a tradition of hundreds of years of institutional study of Romanian language in universities abroad.

The Romanian Language Institute through its lectureships ensures the preservation, development and support of the study of Romanian language and civilization in academic environments with the help of its best specialists. There are over 50 Romanian lectureships in over 30 countries operating in prestigious universities all over the world.

RLI is dedicated to its mission of:
▪ promoting the Romanian language worldwide
▪ providing support and training for learners of Romanian
▪ ensuring the logistic support of the Romanian lectureships operating in academic institutions abroad
▪ administering Romanian proficiency exams/certificates
▪ remunerating its lecturers with a monthly salary (under taxation according to the Romanian legislation)
